THE TRANSVAAL QUIET.

A Big Fine Levied on the British Chartered Company.

London, Jan. 8.—A dispatch to the Secretary of State for the Colonies, Joseph Chamberlain, from Sir Hercules Robinson, dated yesterday and just made public, says: "The Ul-landers of Johannesburg have surrendered unconditionally and have given up their arms to the representatives of President Kruger. In addition, the latter has intimated the intention of handing over Dr. Jameson and the other prisoners captured by the Boers to the British High Commissioner on the borders of Natal." Sir Hercules Robinson, in the dispatch, adds: "You may, therefore, be satisfied that no crisis is on, and that all danger of further hostilities is ended."

The dispatch is regarded by Transvaal as a preliminary settling of the affairs of the Transvaal, and it is also looked upon as a step towards the report that Jameson had been sentenced to be shot, or sent to Cape Town recently.

The most bitter contentment is felt at at Cape Town, says a dispatch dated January 5, for the Rand Uilanders, who are branded as cowards for abandoning Jameson, and the hope is expressed that President Kruger will reject their demands.

London, Jan. 9.—A dispatch received from Cape Town this evening, dated Jan. 7, says that it is reported that at Pretoria that the Transvaal Government demands the banishment of Cecil Rhodes, the ex-Premier of Cape Colony, and Dr. Jameson from Africa and that an enormous fine is also demanded from the British Chartered Company. It is supposed that this may refer to the $2,000,000 indemnity, which, according to a dispatch from Berlin, the Transvaal Government will demand of Great Britain.

Yesterday morning Antone Doe, the man who was convicted on the previous day in Justice Hawthorn's Court was fined $30 or 15 days. He chose to go to jail. But for the eloquent defense of Barrister Brannan, he would have been sent up for a much longer period.

The Death Tidings says that the "consummation of the Edmund Vanderbilt wedding will be witnessed by very few people." It is to be hoped that the Tidings has not been misinformed on the subject.
